

Esatto Pharma's patient guide to informed care.

Take an active role in your care by writing down your symptoms and concerns. Be honest about your wants and needs. Understand the options and discuss the benefits of specialized, science-backed solutions from compounding pharmacies like Esatto Pharma. Your health matters. With Esatto, you can feel confident in a higher standard of precise, personalized care.

ASKING THE RIGHT QUESTIONS

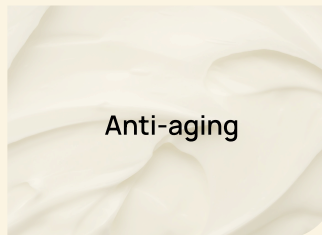

Advocate for your health by opening up the dialogue with your healthcare team.

Consider asking...

- What is causing my symptoms or condition?
- Are there multiple treatment options available?
- What kind of medications are available?
- What kind of medications address my concerns?
